

SUBCONTRACTOR SUPERVISOR COMMITMENT

Nothing is more important than safety. As a supervisor, you play a key role in ensuring work is performed in a safe manner, by supporting a strong safety culture, by informing and educating your company's workers, by providing proper planning for your company's work and by enforcing safety rules. Thank you for your contribution to a safe jobsite. Nothing is more important than safety.

I understand that, before my company starts its work on this project, it is my responsibility, as a supervisor, to inform my workers about the following Winter safety requirements:

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY: Discuss fire, weather, and evacuation procedures.

WINTER'S SAFETY RULES: Each subcontractor employee must review and sign the SafetyPartner documents. Winter safety rules may exceed OSHA standards.

WINTER'S 6-FOOT RULE - 100% FALL PROTECTION POLICY: Explain the Winter Fall Protection policy.

GLOBAL HARMONIZATION SYSTEM: Identify the location of the Hazard Communication written program and the Safety Data Sheets (SDS).

SITE SPECIFIC HAZARDS: Ensure all workers know the general hazards present on this site and the specific hazards associated with the work they will perform.

WEEKLY SAFETY TRAINING - "TOOLBOX" MEETINGS: Ensure all employees are provided weekly safety training. In addition, the jobsite may require mandatory attendance to Winter safety training.

INJURY/INCIDENT/NEAR MISS REPORTING: Ensure all injuries and incidents are reported to Winter supervision immediately.

UNSAFE ACTS / CONDITIONS: Report all unsafe acts and conditions immediately to Winter Supervision

HOUSEKEEPING IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY: Clean as you go.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Cell phone usage should be limited to brief, work-related calls. No headphones, earbuds, radios, or music is permitted. Workers shall not perform work while distracted by electronic devices. Workers shall not climb or access ladders, scaffold or other work platforms while carrying and/or using an electronic device. No equipment shall be operated while using an electronic device.

Subcontractor Supervisor's Statement

As a Winter SafetyPartner, I confirm my personal commitment to promote and enforce both Winter and OSHA safety rules.
